Textbook Requisition and Coursepack Due Dates

The Textbook Department of the Cuesta College Bookstore has established ongoing textbook and course-pack requisition due dates for relevant semesters. At this time, all textbook and course-pack orders are being processed at the San Luis Obispo campus bookstore.

Textbook requisition forms will be sent to the division chair assistants for distribution to the appropriate faculty members. The forms must be completely filled out with current textbook information then returned to the department for the division chair's signature. The requisition forms will subsequently be forwarded to the Bookstore for processing.

Course-pack changes and new masters are due one month later than textbook requisition forms. Changes and new masters are to be submitted to the Textbook Department "print ready."
